

hello

please keep the current "nj do not call list laws" as they are. i enjoy not being disturbed by telemarketers, especially when i am spending time with my family. if i want a service from any company i will contact them on my own, besides i never purchase anything over the phone or sign up for any service over the phone from any company that will call.

thank you